We can't do without you, Mr Phil Westwood.

Over the past few years you may have completed a short Understanding Society questionnaire for 10-15 year olds. As you turn 16 this year, you are now old enough to join the adult survey for the first time.

Understanding Society is a wonderful data resource. It is used by academics, students, policy makers and charities such as Age UK and The Children's Society. You are an important part of it. Your participation gives a voice to the experiences of thousands of people like you.

As mentioned in my recent letter, you can complete this year's survey online. Just click here.

To say thank you for your help, we have sent you a £30 gift-card. Plus, to welcome you to the adult survey, you will automatically be entered into a prize draw for an iPad when you complete your interview.

Your participation is entirely voluntary, but we do hope you'll be able to help us.

Please let us know if you change any of your contact details by filling out our online form.

If you have any questions, please email our Participant Helpline.

Many thanks,

Professor Michaela Benzeval
Director, Understanding Society
Institute for Social and Economic Research
University of Essex

We can't do without you, Mr Phil Westwood.

Can you spare some valuable time to help our world-leading study?

Understanding Society is a wonderful data resource. It is used by academics, students, policy makers and charities such as Age UK and The Children's Society. You are an important part of it. Your participation gives a voice to the experiences of thousands of people like you. We need to continue interviewing the same people in order to understand changes in our society.

As mentioned in my recent letter, you can complete this year's survey online. Just click here.

To say thank you for your help, if you're able to take part this time we will send you a £10 gift-card.

Your participation is entirely voluntary, but we do hope you'll be able to help us.

Please let us know if you change any of your contact details by filling out our online form.

If you have any questions, please email our Participant Helpline.

Many thanks,

Professor Michaela Benzeval
Director, Understanding Society

We can't do without you, Mr Phil Westwood.

You may have already received a letter about Understanding Society; one of our interviewers has visited your address a number of times hoping to arrange a convenient time to interview you, but so far they have been unsuccessful. We hope you do not mind us trying once more.

This year, we've made it possible to take part in Understanding Society on-line. We hope that this will make it easier for you to participate at a time which is most convenient to you. Just click here.

We are persevering in this way because your views and experiences are very important. By taking part, you will help us ensure that the study represents all types of people across the UK, and thus paints an accurate picture of what our society looks like today and how it is gradually changing. The information from this study is used by academics, policy makers and charities such as Age UK and The Children's Society.
