Dear _____,

You may be aware that _____ participated in an important research project called Understanding Society last year. The study is concerned with how things change over time, and we are hoping to revisit everyone who participated last time, to see how their lives have changed or stayed the same.

Unfortunately, we have been unable to contact the person named above. They gave us your name as a contact in the event of any change in their circumstances, and we would be most grateful if you would let us know their current address and telephone number, wherever they are living now. You can call us on Freephone 0800 252 853, email us at contact@understandingsociety.ac.uk or complete and return the reply slip below in the Freepost envelope provided – you do not need a stamp.

By giving us their name, address and telephone number you are not committing them to be interviewed. Taking part is entirely voluntary, though we very much hope to achieve an interview with everybody who has taken part previously, so that our results give an accurate picture of people's experiences. Once we have their new details, an interviewer will contact them and invite them to take part.

If you have any questions about the study, please visit www.understandingsociety.ac.uk or call us using the Freephone number above.

Thank you for your help.

Yours sincerely,

Date ____/____/____

Dear _____

This time last year we interviewed your household for Understanding Society. The study is concerned with how things change or stay the same over time – your participation can help us paint a unique picture of what the UK looks like today and how it is gradually changing.

We would very much like to interview you and your household again this year; however, I called today at the address your household was interviewed at last year and found that you now live elsewhere. I spoke to _____ who did not wish to give your new address or telephone number without your permission, but did agree to forward this letter to you on our behalf.

We would be most grateful if you would let us know your current address and telephone number, wherever you are living now. You can call us on Freephone 0800 252 853, email us at contact@understandingsociety.ac.uk or complete and return the reply slip below in the Freepost envelope provided – you do not need a stamp.

By giving us your name, address and telephone number you are not committing yourself to be interviewed. Once you have confirmed your new details, an interviewer will contact you and invite you to take part. If you are willing, a convenient time for an interview can then be arranged.

The study is being conducted by researchers from the University of Essex, together with Kantar. If you have any questions about the study, or would prefer not to be contacted again, please visit the special participants' website at www.understandingsociety.ac.uk or call us using the Freephone number above.

Thank you in advance for your help.

Yours sincerely,

Dear RESP_Name

Congratulations on winning an iPad! Everybody who has turned 16 in the last year and took part in the Understanding Society adult survey this year was entered into the draw.

As someone who will be making a lot of life decisions in the next few years it is extra important that we talk to people like you. Interviewing you and others in your position allows researchers to find out how society is changing for young people; how the economy is affecting them at work or in education, and how decisions made now and in the past will affect your future.

Everyone is valuable in our survey - we can't replace you - and this is the main strength of a study like ours: it follows the same people over time. Only by following the same people over time can researchers identify patterns and trends which can help inform better policy making in Government.

I hope that you will continue to participate. Each time we interview you, the information you have already given becomes even more valuable!

Thank you, again, for taking part in this important study.

Yours faithfully,

Professor Michaela Benzeval

Director, Understanding Society.

Dear RESP_Name

You may remember we contacted you in the last few months to ask for your help in this year's Understanding Society study. As we have not yet been able to interview you, we hope you don't mind if we try to visit you again to arrange a convenient time to do so.

This is why your views and experiences are so important to our study:

- 1 By taking part, you help us ensure that the study represents all types of people across the UK, and can paint an accurate picture of what our society looks like today and how it is gradually changing. The study provides vital information for policy makers, so the more people that take part in the study, the better informed and able they are to improve society for everyone.
- 2 Taking part gives you a voice on issues that matter to you, your family and your community. The data collected from participants are very widely used by researchers in all kinds of fields including employment, health, and education.
- 3 You have been part of this study for the last few years and we can't replace you with anyone else as no two lives are the same. The contribution you make is really vital to us and to the academics and policy makers who use the data.

Although your participation is entirely voluntary, we do hope you'll be able to help.

We will try to get in touch with you again soon, and hopefully you will enjoy taking part in the study this time around as well.

If you have any questions, please call or email the participant helpline (see back of this letter). You can also find out more about the study on our website at www.understandingsociety.ac.uk.

Understanding Society is an innovative world-leading study about life in the UK. The data you help produce allows researchers and policy makers to better understand the state of the UK and to propose improved policies for people across the country.

Why we need you

The success of the survey is primarily driven by people like you. It is only with your participation that we can collect the data necessary to understand the pace of change in the UK and probe how issues such as immigration, the economy and changing social values impact upon the lives of individuals.

Next step

If you would like to complete online, you can access the survey here.
If you are not able to complete your interview online, an interviewer will contact you in a few weeks.

Click to start
the survey >

And finally, if you are able to complete the survey online by July 21st we will send you an additional £10 gift card as a thank you for your early completion.

For details of the study's privacy policy, please see

Understanding Society – every interview matters

Dear RESP_Name

Your annual interview helps us understand more about life in the UK today.

One of our interviewers has tried to contact you a number of times in the last few weeks hoping that you'll take part in this year's Understanding Society interview. We're sorry to have missed you.

We're trying once more because your views and experiences are very important to us. We cannot replace you with anyone else. Interviewing you every year helps us see what's changed and what's stayed the same in your life – this is why we'd really like you to complete your interview again this year.

Have questions or want more information?

Call our participant helpline on 0800 252 853 or email us contact@understandingsociety.ac.uk. We'll be pleased to hear from you and answer any questions you have.

With many thanks,

Professor Michaela Benzeval
Director, Understanding Society.

Thank you!

Dear Name

Thank you for taking part in Understanding Society.

We really appreciate the time you gave to complete your survey. It is so important that we know what real people think, feel and do. Every time you complete your Understanding Society survey you are helping us understand more about life in the UK.

We look forward to speaking to you next year.

With many thanks,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michaela Benzeval".

Thank you for taking part in Understanding Society

Dear RESP_Name

Thank you ever so much for your recent participation in Understanding Society. At the end of the interview we mentioned that there is a short self-completion questionnaire that we would like Child_name to complete.

We would be grateful if you could look through the blank questionnaire and, if you are happy to do so, give it to Child_name. When Child_name has completed the questionnaire, they can put it into the envelope enclosed and it can be posted back to us, free of charge.

As you know one of the really important features of the survey is that everyone's answers are completely confidential. This really helps us get responses from people that are completely truthful and accurate and makes the survey one of the best in the world. This applies to all the adults who take part but also all the children, so we ask all parents/guardians to allow their children to complete the questionnaire in private. We hope you understand why this is so important, but if you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact us.

As a token of our appreciation, I have enclosed a £10 voucher for Child_name.

If you have any questions at all about Understanding Society and your involvement in it, please contact us using the number on the back of this letter. Do also check our special participants' website where you can read some early findings, send us a message or just find out more information about Understanding Society: www.understandingsociety.ac.uk/participants.

Yours faithfully,

Professor Michaela Benzeval
Director, Understanding Society.

Thank you for taking part in Understanding Society

Dear RESP_Name

As well as interviewing adults, Understanding Society also interviews children aged 10-15 by asking them to complete a short paper questionnaire. Having children answer questions about their life is really valuable to the Study and helps us better understand issues that may particularly affect children and young people.

We have recently sent you a paper questionnaire to pass on to Child_name to complete. At the moment we do not have a record of the questionnaire having been returned.

If Child_name has completed the questionnaire and it has been posted back in the last few days – thank you and please ignore this letter.

If they haven't yet completed their questionnaire, we would be grateful if you could encourage Child_name to complete it and post it back to us. Just like the adults that take part in Understanding Society, children's experiences are unique and we can't replace them with anyone else.

By taking part in the youth survey, Child_name will help many organisations carry out important research that will improve life in the UK for all. For example, charities such as The Children's Society and Barnardos are using information from the survey to improve children's wellbeing, whilst the Social Metrics Commission has used the information to report to the government on what activities children do outside of school. To find out more about who uses the study, please visit www.understandingsociety.ac.uk/participants

If you have any questions at all about Understanding Society, please contact us using the details on the back of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Michaela Benzeval

Director, Understanding Society.
