Dear.....

You may remember that your household was interviewed for the Living in Britain study on __/__/2008. The study has now been renamed as Understanding Society and is being conducted by researchers from the University of Essex together with NatCen. As the study is concerned with how things change over time, we would like to interview you and your household again.

I called today at the address we have on our files and found that you now live elsewhere. I spoke to _____ who did not wish to give your new address or telephone number without your permission, but did agree to forward this letter to you on our behalf.

We would be most grateful if you would let us know your present address and telephone number, wherever you are living now. You can call us on Freephone 0800 252 853, email us at contact@understandingsociety.org.uk or complete and return the reply slip below in the Freepost envelope provided – you will not need a stamp.

By giving us your name, address and telephone number you are not committing yourself to be interviewed. Once you have confirmed your new details an interviewer will contact you and invite you to take part. If you are willing, a convenient time for an interview can then be arranged.

If you have any questions about the study, or would prefer not to be contacted again, please visit www.understandingsociety.org.uk/participants or call us using the number provided above.

Thank you for your help.

Yours sincerely,

Your interviewer
Understanding Society
